

How to Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way, and it Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know its misery. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-six years has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 774 Vinton Street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

SHRINERS SPEND DAY AT NATURAL BRIDGE

Visit of Members of Aca Temple an Enjoyable Occasion—Arrival of Fall Guests.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Natural Bridge, Va., October 1.—Last Saturday was the day set for the meeting of the Mystic Shriners, who came nearly 200 strong to hold a ceremonial session here, and to initiate twenty candidates. The faithful cohorts of Aca Temple, Richmond, arrived in full force in the afternoon, and most merrily did the hours of their visit pass. The celebration began at 7 o'clock with a pilgrimage of the Shriners, who formed in front of the hotel and marched to the glen to the music of fife and drum. The whole line of march and the wonderful bridge itself were illuminated by calcium and electricity, and a stirring and beautiful pageant it was, as the crimson caps of the members of the order and the green and gold and arms of the guard gleamed in the myriads of lights. High above all the great stone arch took on red and green tints—a weird and pretty sight. A grand banquet was given in the spacious dining-room of the hotel, after which the initiations closed the gaieties of the time. The success of the occasion was due largely to the able and skillful management of the Grand Potentate, Thomas B. McAdams, of Richmond, who responded gracefully and cleverly to all the demands of the time. The Shriners left the Bridge Sunday morning after a most delightful celebration. Last Friday thirty Odd Fellows from Massachusetts, under D. A. Harrington, visited the Bridge, after attending the National Conference of Odd Fellows held in Atlanta.

The fall colony continues to grow and will hold many members for the entire fall season. Numerous reservations have already been made and other applications are coming in daily.

The fall colony is very happy to welcome the return of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Cheyney and Miss Starr Cheyney, of Tarpon Springs, Fla., attractive guests of other seasons. Mr. and Mrs. Cheyney are accompanied by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hall, of Ocala, Fla.

The Bridge considers itself very fortunate in having among its fall guests Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Corbin, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Thomas and daughter, of Detroit, Mich., have returned to the Bridge for the fall season and are heartily welcomed by their friends and acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taggart and little son, of Indianapolis, are new members of the fall colony. A touring party under the auspices of Messrs. Raymond and Whitcomb, and personally conducted by William Zinner, of Philadelphia, recently visited the Bridge. Its members were Misses N. L. Galt, of Providence, R. I.; N. G. Clark, of Lawrence, Mass.; Julia Goodrich, of Cold Springs Harbor, L. I.; R. Sanders, of Providence, R. I.; S. Williams, of Carbondale, Pa.; and W. B. Wallace, of Montclair, N. J., and Edward Hall, of Springfield, Mass.

SEASON NEARS CLOSE AT WHITE SULPHUR

Enjoyable Costume Dinner Is Feature of Week's Gaieties—Moonlight Driving Party.

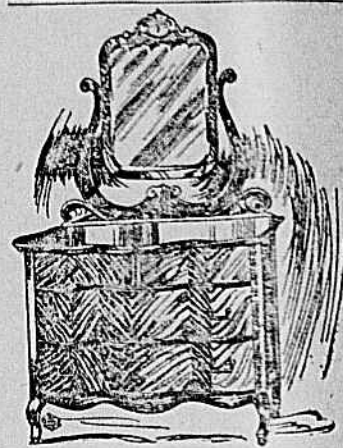

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., October 1.—A costume dinner was one of the interesting events of the week and seemed one of the most enjoyed of many brilliant affairs which have marked this season as the revival of the White Sulphur of long ago.

The table decorations were in keeping with the season, and were suggestive of a harvest home festival. The table was literally made a field of wild flowers and bright-hued autumn leaves, and here and there golden pumpkins and fruit nestled among the leaves, while the little brown jug, filled with cider fresh from the press, was half hidden by the branches of goldenrod and salvage. Mr. and Mrs. George T. Marye, of Washington, gave a moonlight driving party to sixteen friends, which wound up with a supper at Dixon's Mountain House, famed these many years for its fried chicken and waffles. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. John D. Potts, Miss Potts, Mrs. Barton Grundy, Mrs. Elmore D. Hotchkiss, Miss Gertrude Camm and Dr. Garnett Nelson, of Richmond; Mrs. Andrew Bradley, Oscar V. Fortner, Miss Jennie Mason, Gibbs, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wernag and Miss Dougherty, of Philadelphia; Thomas Middleton, New York, and John L. Steinman, Lancaster, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Rosewell Page, of Hanover and Richmond, have spent the week at the White Sulphur. These fine days have brought a number of prominent New Yorkers over by automobile to spend the day.

PRESIDENT FALLIERES, OF FRANCE.

A Swiss pennant girl asked the Chief Magistrate to give her a kiss during a recent trip to Bern. While not exactly Parisian, the President of France proved truly Gallic in his behavior. He didn't shut an eye or tickle a lid, but advanced to the pleasant osculatory visit, surveyed it with satisfaction and implanted a smack on the girl's lips that he declared to have sounded like unto the slamming of the kitchen door when the cat is put out. Then the crowd cheered and the Hobokenese satirical began, as a foregone conclusion. The President was kept busy with lip calisthenics until the train came—and to do him gallant justice, he seemed sorry when it loomed in sight around the curve.

MANY OUTDOOR AFFAIRS GIVEN AT HOT SPRINGS

Dinners, Luncheons and Suppers Add to Pleasures of Visitors—Fall Guests Arriving.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Virginia Hot Springs, October 1.—Numerous changes in the villa colony with the coming of the fall season and a number of outdoor entertainments in the open were features of the week. The social calendar has been full, dinners in the Grills, which has been opened for the season, running close seconds to old Virginia luncheons and suppers at Fasnifern Farm, the Daniel Boone Log Cabin and the Oaks. Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting, who have spent the summer at Barton Lodge, the home of the late Seth Harton French, are leaving for Washington in two weeks, when Mrs. David Dunlop, who has taken a two-year leave on the place, will move over with her family from The Pillows. The Misses Alice and Julia Whiting are entertaining a house party including the Misses Jean Whiting and Mary McCauley. Dr. and Mrs. Whiting entertained a saddle party at a tea at Fasnifern Farm Thursday in compliment to the Misses Whiting, McCauley, Gladys Ingalls, Abbie Barnard and Grace Rutherford. Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ingalls, at Oyster Bay, and relatives in Boston, will return to Inglescott tomorrow morning in her private car. The Misses Gladys Ingalls and Abbie Barnard have entertained at a series of smart luncheons in compliment to members of the younger set during the week. Miss Judith Colston is a house guest at Inglescott.

Mrs. Charles Neave and her family who spent the summer at the President's Bungalow, have gone to New York, and Miss Ruth Harrison has arrived from Cincinnati for the fall season. Miss Harrison will entertain extensively during her stay.

Mrs. George Guntton and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lowe, who are at present in New York, will return next week to Guntton Lodge. Mrs. Guntton entertained at a luncheon last Saturday in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. Julius S. Walsh, Jr., of New York, who are spending the fall season at the Homestead with the latter's mother, Mrs. Arthur Cary, of Lexington. Judge and Mrs. William Harrison Jackson, who have leased Edmonstone Lodge to Dr. and Mrs. Guy Hinsdale, of Philadelphia, for six months, beginning November 1, will remain here several weeks longer before going to New York.

The Rev. and Mrs. Matland Alexander, who are at Upland House, and expect to remain until the first of December, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright, who will remain two months longer at Bright View, are others at present in the villa colony. A reading of Macaulay's "Pellucid" and "Melland," accompanied by the score of the opera, for the benefit of Sharon Sanatorium, attracted a large throng to the Casino on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Amy Grant, who read, was assisted by Madame Louise Armitage, who presided at the piano. The patrons and patronesses included

Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Justice and Mrs. Horace Lorton, Mrs. Melville B. Ingalls, Dr. and Mrs. Whiting, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Warrington, Mrs. Norman Williams, Mrs. Wesley Merritt, Mrs. Jacob Remson, Mrs. Matland Alexander, Mrs. J. Randolph Tucker, the Bishop of Southern Pennsylvania and Mrs. Ethelbert Talbot, Miss Harriet Fellows, Mrs. E. C. Galludet, Lapsford Stewart, A. Watson Black, Mrs. Samuel Pomeroy Colt and Stephen Peabody.

A score or more of luncheons at the farm houses have been a feature of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Pruyn, of Albany, entertained a party at Fasnifern Farm in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius K. G. Billings, who have brought their big touring cars with them, have entertained numerous motor parties. On Sunday they gave a luncheon at the farm for Mr. and Mrs. Hug J. Grant.

Thomas J. Felder, of Atlanta, who only recently returned to this country, after a two years' residence abroad, was a luncheon host this week at Fasnifern, in compliment to Mr. Justice and Mrs. Horace Lorton. Others entertaining at Old Virginia luncheons of the week were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. Sidney Harris, J. Jesse L. Eddy, Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevens Uiman, Mrs. Harry M. Alexander, Mrs. Andrew Dougherty, William T. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah C. Shaw, Mrs. Matland Alexander, Newbold Le Roy Edgar and Mrs. Francis Key Fencliston, who gave a luncheon at the Daniel Boone Log Cabin on Sunday afternoon for a mountain buckboard party.

James J. Van Alen and Miss May Van Alen have arrived from Newport, and while here at the Homestead are taking the "kur" and the new Tynauer treatment, which has been introduced at the Kurhaus, which is now under the direction of Dr. Kurk Lühner, of Carlsbad.

Mrs. Paul Tuckerman, of Tuxedo, who has arrived with Miss Dorothy Tuckerman, will be joined shortly by Mr. Tuckerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, Jr., who spent the summer in Bar Harbor, have joined friends at the Springs for the fall season.

William T. Eldridge, of New York, and his brother, Henry P. Eldridge, of Newport, are here for their annual "kur" and course of baths.
